Definition of a Complaint

The definition of a complaint is 'A statement that something is unsatisfactory or unacceptable', this is regardless whether the complaint is justifiable or not.

An individual, service user or organisation may make a complaint for any number of reasons, listed below are some of the most common:

- They feel United Taxis failed to provide a service or an 'acceptable' standard of service.
- They feel United Taxis or one of its employees mishandled a situation.
- They feel United Taxis or one of its employees provided an 'unfair' service.

This policy and procedure relate only to complaints received about United Taxis and its services.

Concern or Complaint

It is important to establish the difference between concern and a complaint. Taking informal concerns seriously at the earliest stage will reduce the likelihood of concerns developing into formal complaints.

We therefore ask that any individual, service user or organisation with a concern about our service, reports this to a member of staff or via our website, at their earliest convenience, for us to understand and attempt to deescalate concerns at our earliest opportunity.

If an individual is unhappy with the response to their concern and/or want to make a formal complaint, please follow the procedure below.

Complaints Procedure

United Taxis aim to settle the majority of complaints quickly and in a satisfactory manner, this could be by way of an apology or an acceptable explanation to the complainant.

There are three stages to the complaints procedure:

- Stage 1 – The complaint
- Stage 2 – Investigation

Stage One – The Complaint

The complaint can be written or if the complainant prefers, they can discuss the complaint with a member of staff who can express this for them via the staff website.

A complaint form is also available to use on our website (<https://556677.com/Feedback/Feedback-Form.html>) this form can be completed by the complainant.

The complaint should include the complainants name, pick up address, telephone number, nature or complaint and where possible details of the service used such as booking time and date.

Individuals, service users or organisations wishing to make a complaint should contact United Taxis via:

Website: <https://556677.com/Feedback/Feedback-Form.html>

Email: customerservice@556677.com

Post: United Taxis (Bournemouth)

Stage Two – Investigation

All complaints will be managed by the customer service team. The customer service team may delegate parts of the investigation to the office manager or allocated director where necessary.

If the complaint involves a United Taxis driver, the customer service team must thoroughly investigate the complaint, this includes checking booking details, relevant calls, mapping of a job (where relevant).

United Taxis aim to provide an outcome to all complaints within 5 working days, this allows for thorough investigation. Occasionally investigations may take longer, particularly if the complaint is complex or if we require evidence from a third party.

We aim to provide the complainant details of the outcome and resolution, where appropriate. The outcome will not refer to any individual employees, drivers or groups of employees.

Where the complaint is upheld an apology should be offered.

If the complainant remains dissatisfied with the outcome from Stage Two they can appeal within 5 working days of the date of the outcome to BCP Council.

Anonymous Complaints

Complaints received anonymously will be recorded and considered, but action may be limited if further information is required, this helps us ensure a full and fair investigation.

Data Protection

To process a complaint, United Taxis will hold personal data about the complainant, which the individual provides and which other people give in response to the complaint.

United Taxis will hold this data securely and only use it to address the complaint. The identity of the person making the complaint will only be known to those who need to consider the complaint and will not be revealed to other people or made public by United Taxis.

However, it may not be possible to preserve confidentiality in some circumstances, for example, where relevant legislation applied or allegations are made which involve the conduct of third parties.

United Taxis will typically destroy complaints files in a secure manner, 1 year after the complaint has been closed.

Monitoring

Complaints are an important tool which, alongside data provided by surveys and user feedback, will allow United Taxis to learn about and better the services we provide. They provide a useful source of information about how individuals see our services and how we are serving them.

To ensure United Taxis can learn from complaints the following data will be collected (where possible):
